Newsletter of the Hamburg Township Historical Society • September 2022

All Our Need-to-Know Information Is Now Available on a Website!

For the first time in the history of the Hamburg Township Historical Society, you can access basic information about the organization and the museum online. In August, we debuted a new website at <https://hamburgmuseum.org>, and we couldn't be prouder.

Most everything you'll want to know is organized under four categories: About, Visit, Learn, and Support. If you're wondering who's on the board, click on About. Looking for the museum's open hours? You'll find them under Plan. Interested in the newest changing exhibit or children's program? Those would be on the Learn page. And Support will direct you to everything from how to join the society to how you can make a financial contribution.

If, after looking at these pages, you still have unanswered questions, just contact us through the form at the bottom of the homepage. And don't hesitate to send us feedback; we are committed to continuing to improve and add to the website over time.

Historical society board members worked with Wagner Design to make the new website engaging, educational, and easy to navigate.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES MEETING SEPT. 21

Have you thought about volunteering for the historical society, but aren't sure what that might entail? Then come to a get-together at the museum on Wednesday, September 21 at 7 pm. We'll explain the responsibilities of board members vs. committee members and introduce you to the many fun and fulfilling ways you can make a difference.

WHAT'S NEW?

- Among the many things donated for the 2022 rummage sales were a variety of antiques that don't fit within our collecting goals and are causing a storage problem. If you have experience selling on eBay and could help find new homes for these objects, please call 810-986-0190.
- Planning a small gathering to celebrate a special day, or just looking for space to hold a meeting? The museum tearoom is now available for rent.

Rates are $25/hour during regular museum hours – Wednesdays and Saturdays, 11 am-3 pm – or $35/hour outside of open hours. The latter requires a 3-hour minimum. Access to the museum's exhibit space and/or group tours may also be arranged for an additional fee. Seating is available for 30 at round tables with chairs.

WHAT'S NEW CONTINUED

A rental application may be viewed and printed out from the historical society website at <https://hamburgmuseum.org>.

WHAT'S COMING?

SEPTEMBER 14
(rescheduled from AUGUST 31)
FREE TALK on "The Hall Family"
by Teresa Tegels
7 pm at the museum

SEPTEMBER 21
Volunteer Information Meeting
