A SPRINGTIME TEA

Honoring the Courage & Contributions of America's Founding Mothers

Saturday, May 16, 12:00 pm

Special teas, sweet and savory treats, inspiring history and wonderful company

7225 Stone Street, Hamburg, MI

Our founding mothers did not spend their days during the war sipping tea! Join featured speaker, Marie Sarnacki, as she describes the incredible contributions of these brave women of the Revolution

Marie Sarnacki, a teacher at South Lyon East High School, was named 2025 Michigan History Teacher of the Year by the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History. Since 2004, the distinguished award has recognized exceptional K–12 educators for their remarkable work in teaching American history.

Or stop in Saturdays from 10 am-2 pm

Registration deadline: May 12

PRESENTING...

For your viewing pleasure and learning

HATS WITH A PAST

Come explore our vintage hat collection featuring designs adorned with feathers, flowers, beadwork, embroidery, and veils. Once symbols of social status, fashion, and personal identity, these unique pieces showcase artistry from another era.

(Museum hours: Saturdays, 10am – 2pm)

Don't forget to purchase your ticket for the May 16 tea! See page 1

There are now nine screens throughout the museum providing a more immersive experience when you visit the exhibits.

You will enjoy more pictures; more detail while still enjoying the historic artifacts you love. We are working diligently to curate even more engaging opportunities to learn about regional history.

Coming in May

Hamburg Heros - Military artifacts from various conflicts will be on display to honor regional veterans. The display includes a quilt with local names, a painting of the USS Civil War ship Cairo, uniforms, and more.

Lighting it Up – Our beautiful built-to-scale doll house will now have lights to illuminate the furnishings and amazing craftsmanship of this piece.
